- As this is a small company my role fluctuated between multiple different tasks:
- Myself and one other were responsible for the lighting on tour, this involved re-lighting the show for each performance according to the venue's lighting set-up. This was very high pressure work as we had to learn new lighting boards and systems to accomplish this with no formal prior experience. We successfully re-lit over 150 lighting cues in the span between arrival at the venue and curtains for over 5 venues.
- I also handled their social media accounts and online advertising for their tour.
